

During school closures, if you're having difficulty and feeling stressed with the added pressure of now being teacher to your child/children, please remember:

You don't need to replicate the school experience.
Don't try to be your child's classroom teacher.
Just keep being the teacher you ALREADY are.

We trained for years to teach the way we do,
just as you trained for years to teach the way you do.

We couldn't take over your job overnight,
you won't be able to do ours.

Read with your child.

Cook with your child.

Garden with your child.

Enjoy nature with your child.

Make and create things with your child.

Sing and dance with your child.

PLAY with your child.

And above all, keep being the kind, calm role-model your child needs through this challenging time.

This is how you teach.

Keep doing you.

Your child is learning from you every single day.
